OUR CLIENTS

Many of our clients have gone on to do exciting things.
Here are just a few of them.

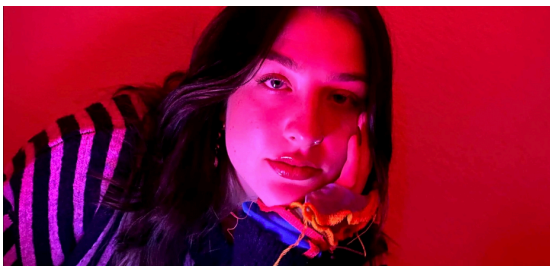

JACOB LARSON

Starting lessons at age 11, he now is a widely-known Colorado presence with his own band, several albums, and shows every week all over Colorado.

ERIC GOLDEN

Eric went from open mics and Performance High showcases to 250+ paid gigs per year with his country band - and a couple of awards from the Colorado Country Hall of Fame along the way.

KENDRA BENAY

Kendra came to Performance High to fine-tune her vocals and find her identity. She found her dual calling as a worship leader at one of the largest churches in Colorado - recently performing at Red Rocks - and as a solo artist.

LESLIE TOM

After putting her career on hold for motherhood, Leslie re-ignited her voice and confidence at Performance High, ultimately playing her brand of classic country shows around Colorado and in Europe.

"Our show went GREAT. I received a ton of compliments from the venue, band members, and the audience...many of whom said I 'nailed it.' I was able to hit higher notes after I put your advice into practice." - Christina U.

OUR PROMISE

Our Promise To You:
You will see progress from your very first voice lesson.

Our founder Adrienne was frustrated when she couldn't find any voice lessons that felt like a good use of time and money. But when she finally did, she saw more progress in a few weeks than she had seen in years!

Our promise is that with our effective teaching methods, you will see progress from the very first lesson. We are the studio Adrienne wished existed 15 years ago.

We can't wait to hear about your first lesson!

"I have been singing and performing for over 30 years, but had never had formal vocal training. Now that I'm taking lessons, my band and I have clearly noticed the difference." - Cris Z.

"Adrienne has an uncanny ability to zero in on the exact exercises that I need to transform my voice and further my progress." - Zoe R.

I've taken lessons with all of the other teachers in my area, but with Adrienne I've finally learned to sing with a pop tone that fits my style." - Elizabeth M.

HOW WE'RE DIFFERENT

#1: Expert Contemporary Vocal Coaching That Gets Results.

We're highly trained and experienced on teaching popular genres from pop to metal.

In-house training, external accreditation, and continuing education keep us ready to serve you.

Clients who haven't seen progress elsewhere are often surprised at the results they get in their very first lesson.

#2: A comprehensive variety of services for growing artists.

Pop choir, bands, showcases, recording, artist development & wellness, classes, and more.

#3: A fun, supportive, engaged, collaborative community.

"I'm so grateful for the space you've created. I love it there and feel like I've found a community. :)" - Ashley E.

VOICE AND MUSIC STUDIO

WELCOME TO PERFORMANCE HIGH!

Hi, I'm Adrienne Osborn, the studio founder.

I started Performance High in my 30's when I changed careers from software development into music, in search of more meaning and community.

Over the last 16 years, Performance High has grown from private voice lessons taught in my basement to a team of expert, caring coaches with a wide range of skills to help you elevate your voice and become the artist you dream of being - whether that's singing in front of someone for the first time, or keeping your voice healthy on tour.

We're happy you're here!
